- A Communist agitator was reportedly lynched in front of the Militia headquarters in the town of Barlad by citizens driven to despair by the shortage of food in that town.
- 2. The Communist Party headquarters in Constanta, the Headquarters of the Sailor's Union and other buildings housing Communist offices were reportedly sacked during the night of 15 December 1951 by workers and sailors dissatisfied with their living conditions. The Securitatea, supported by Soviet troops, opened fire against the "rebels." There were losses on both sides. Following the incident many arrests were made in the city.
- 3. A clash has reportedly taken place between peasants and the security forces in the departments in Ciuc, Odorhei and Stalin. Lives were reportedly lost on both sides.
- 4. During the night of 20-21 December 1951 members of the resistance attacked a Soviet military convoy in the department of Buzau at a bend in the Buzau river. Several Soviet soldiers were killed and wounded.
- Two Soviet soldiers were wounded when members of the resistance made an attack on a Soviet military vehicle in the forest of Roscani on the Sculeni I asi highway.
- 6. During New Year's Eve anti-Communist leaflets were disseminated in the areas of the Soviet military barracks in Craiova, Turnu Severin, Lugoj and Timisoara.

7. It is reported that Rumanian airplanes of the Militia fly reconnaissance flights over mountainous regions to locate the hideouts of partisan groups. These planes bomb and strafe such groups of partisans in regions which are not accessible to mountain troops and the Communist police. Due to unfavorable flying conditions one such plane crashed on the Marghita Mountain not far from Baile Herculane. Another plane crashed 30 kilometers west of Targu Neamt.
